Annual Report (2014-15)

Counseling is an inter-personal, highly confidential and collaborative process by which the counselor facilitates change and personal development of the students. In counseling students may express freely what happened to them and they share their all problems with the counselor. Students may have various problems like emotional, relational, academic, situational, physical and mental. Every one of us needs counseling in day to day life. Sometime we feel helpless, hopeless and unable to handle the negative thoughts coming to the mind.

The outcome of the counseling is that it will help the student to keep mind calm. It gives him self-confidence, self-reliance, self-empowerment, ability to face the reality and positive thinking. Every teacher in our college is mentoring the students. Different problems of the student are solved by different teachers. Students face various questions while studying in higher education. The first year admitted student is in dire need of counseling. So keeping mind all those things every elements of the college try to solve the problems of the students by different ways.

The teacher in charge of NSS, NCC, and Competitive Exam Department, Student development officer, Placement cell, Examination department and mentor teachers try to solve the problems of the students in many ways. Our main purpose is to bring out the overall development of the student. Our college Principal Prof. Wakchaure S.D. motivates by visiting every class at the starting of the academic year.
